Travel Tips for Jamaica

November 2014

Jamaica

Jamaica is a country on an island in the Caribbean sea. Jamaica is apart of the British Commonwealth, and has been since the 17th century. It is a tropical island populated with beaches and river. The land of rum and lumber has a beautiful mountain range called the blue mountains. Jamaica is the perfect place to relax on the beach with a glass of rum to watch the beautiful sunset.

Useful Info

- Jamaicans speak English (with an accent)
- Drive on the left side of the road
- Electrical outlets are the same as in the US and Canada
- Water is safe to drink

"To get away from one's working environment is, in a sense, to get away from one's self; and this often the chief advantage of travel and change."

-Charles Horton Cooley
